

Bar Up Against Jack Johnson in New York SPLIT DOUBLE-HEADER OGDEN BATSMEN FAIL

Despite Preparations of Promoters Empire Cardinals Prove Easy for Butte's Big Pitcher Has State Athletic Commission Will Probably Veto Bout.

By International News Service

TEW YORK, Aug. 18.—It is more than probable that Jack Johnson and Joe Jeannette will not settle any argument as to fistic superiority in this city. The McMahan brothers are going ahead with the work of preparing for the match but the wise ones believe it is a certainty that Johnson never will collect a cent of that $25,-000, not next month anyway.

The State Athletic Commission has a rule written in indelible ink in the big book up at Albany, absolutely barring Jack Johnson from boxing in the state of New York. This banishment is due partly to Johnson's annoying way of seeking publicity in New York, partly to the fact that Governor Dix has noted the fact that practically every time Johnson had appeared in the ring there was trouble of some kind after the affair, also to the fact that assurances were given the governor when he signed the Frawley bill that no prizefights would be staged in the state.

At that time Johnson's name was put on the list of undesirables. There has been no official notice from the State Athletic Commission, but that body will meet the latter part of this week. The rule is a part of the state statutes and put in the book to stay.

Victor of Mandot-Rivers Fight

Three heavyweight battles of ten rounds each will be decided in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night. Joe Jean-ette, who is believed to have a chance to whip Jack Johnson if it should happen that they come together here next month, McCarty also wants to get on that they come together here next month, weight, who has convinced many ring judges that he possesses natural fighting ability.

Madden weighs 210 pounds, while Jean-ette scales 195.

Luther McCarty, one of our budding white hopes, is slated to go ten rounds with Arthur Pelkey, a dangerous young slugger from Chicopee, Mass. McCarty, sleep and is sanxious for another match. McCarty also wants to get on with Palzer.

For these reasons McCarty is going after Pelkey to prove that his victory over Morris was not a fluke.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 18.—The next Queensberry card of national importance to occur is the scheduled twenty-round battle between Mexican Joe Rivers of this city and Joe Mandot, the New Orleans Frenchman.

The fighting Josephs will meet before the Pacific Athletic club in the Vernon arena on the afternoon of Labor day, Monday, September 2, with the official referee, Charles F. Eyton, acting as judge.

It does not take a great stretch of the imagination to see in the winner the next lightweight champion of the world. When it comes right down to a question of making the lightweight limit, 133 pounds, ringside, Rivers and Mandot are the two boys from whom Ad Wolgast light the most to fear.

ST. LOUIS. Aug. 18.—The Cardinals proved easy for the Giants in the first game of the series today. New York winning, 11 to 1. Marquard pitched for the Giants and was very effective, allowing only five hits in eight innings. The Giants got off to a flying start on konetchy's error, a misplay by Geyer and two hits that did not leave the infield. After the game seemed lost, Bresnahan sent in a young battery—Griner and Snyder. Griner was humped for five runs. McGraw also resorted to substitutes after the game was stowed away safely.

Things All His Own Way in Sunday's Baseball Game.

OGDEN, Aug. 18.—Through the very decided effectiveness of "Weiser" Del ere today, the visitors taking the first the Butte Miners were able to make it four out of six from the Macks when they grabbed the single game of today's engagement, 7 to 2, from McCloskey's men. Wet grounds and Ogden's shortage of hurlers caused a postponement of one of the Sunday games. Ogden's two age of hurlers caused a postponement of one of the Sunday games. Ogden's two available pitchers could not stop the hard-hitting Miners.

Stone lasted until the final round, pitching very good ball up to the sixth. Then in the short space of three frames eight safeties netted the visitors five runs. Ervine Jensen relieved Stone in the final inning, but he donated them their seventh and last run. "Rube" Levy, the Ogden discard, earned the everlasting animosity of Manager McCloskey by his wonderful stick work. In five times to the plate he connected safely four times, poling it over the right field fence in one instance and making it two stations in another. His two-bagger sent in three men.

Using his straight, swift ball with deadiveffect, Dell had the Macks at his mercy all the way. Three small singles were divided into two innings, two in the second, together with a pair of mistakes, giving Ogden the two counters. They were really entitled to hut one had Dell's support been perfect in the inning. Tomorrow the club will leave for Missoula, where a single series will be played. There is very little probability of the team taking this road series as McCloskey is still deprived of the services of Pitchers Kalghit and Erickson. After a week with Missoula and one with Salt Lake, the club returns home for the final week of the season. The score:
